Guiding Voices

Message from Principal's Desk

As we approach the final stages of crafting this year's edition of Voices of Tomorrow, I am reminded of the incredible journey we've all undertaken together. Each page of this magazine reflects the dreams, passions, and aspirations that fill the classes every day. It is a true celebration of the voices that define who we are today and who we will become tomorrow.

As we look ahead, we find ourselves at the threshold of a world brimming with possibilities. The future—though unknown—is full of promise, shaped by the decisions we make today and the paths we choose to follow. Our students stand at the heart of this transformation, each one bringing unique talents, ideas, and perspectives to the table. It is our role to nurture these sparks of potential and guide them toward a future that is bright, bold, and full of hope.

In this Voices of Tomorrow edition, I am excited to see the collective energy of our community captured through the voices of our students and teachers. Together, we create a vibrant tapestry of dreams and ambitions, where each story contributes to the larger narrative of our school's journey. My hope is that this magazine not only celebrates the achievements of today but also inspires us to continue reaching higher, pushing boundaries, and striving for the very best versions of ourselves.

To our students, I say: Keep dreaming big, embrace every challenge, and never stop believing in your power to make a difference. To our teachers and staff: Thank you for being the guiding lights that help illuminate the path ahead. And to our parents and community: Your unwavering support is the foundation upon which our future rests.

Ms. Supreet Kaur
PRINCIPAL & DIRECTOR OF ACADEMICS

As we turn the pages of this special edition, may we all be reminded that we are the voices of tomorrow. Together, we have the power to shape a future that is as limitless as our dreams.

Title: Voices of Tomorrow

In every classroom, their voices rise,
With dreams that stretch beyond the skies.
Innovators, leaders, with hearts so bold,
Young women shaping futures untold.

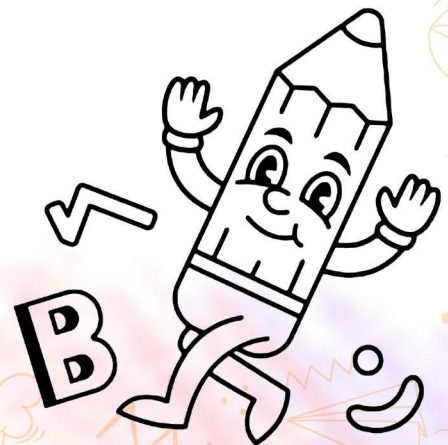

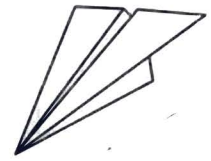

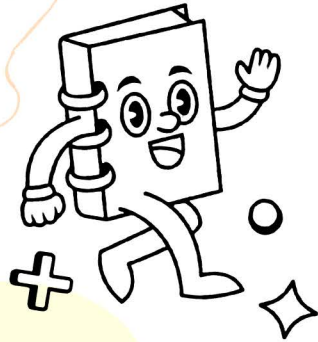

With passion ignited, they stand for the right,
Injustice challenged, they shine their light.
From science to art, their talents unfold
A tapestry woven with threads of gold.

In every corner, their courage inspires,
Fueling the world with their hopes and desires.
Together they rise, a powerful force,
Guiding our society on a brighter course.

So here's to the young women, fierce and free,
The architects of change, the visionaries we see,
With gratitude, we honor, their journey began,
For they are the future, our daughter, our son.

Title: The Letter From the Future

One morning, Rohan woke up at an unusual time, 5:55 AM to be exact. He looked around and found a brightly glowing blue envelope on his desk. Rohan took off the tape and opened the envelope, inside it he found 2 more envelopes, both with labels on the front. One was red, one was green. He took them out, and as he was about to throw the envelope away, he saw a third envelope inside, which was purple. He was confused as to who would've put these colored envelopes here, nevertheless he opened the purple envelope and inside it read, "Dear Rohan. Rohan here. It's the year 2050 here. And the world is in shambles.. The future of the world depends on your actions. It's all upto you, if you want to live a good, long life where you give back to the world and stop all evil. Or an extremely wealthy, short and evil life where you destroy the world for your own gains. Green is for Good, Red is for evil. The choice is yours."

Rohan, without hesitating for a moment opened the green envelope. Inside, there was a match, with a matchbox. He lit the red envelope on fire, and started working for the good of the world from that day on.

Poem

In the whispers of the morning, new dreams take flight,
Tiny voices sing out, filling hearts with happiness.
With a sparkle in their eyes and a smile so bright,
They are the voice of tomorrow, making wrongs all right.
Through the fields they wander, with hopes held high,
Painting dreams of wonder across the endless sky.
In each laugh and giggle, a promise we find,
The voice of tomorrow, leaving fears behind.
So let's listen to their stories, let their dreams unfold,
For in their song of courage, new worlds are told.
Hand in hand we'll follow, where their hearts go,
The voice of tomorrow, leading us to glow.

Title: Voices of Tomorrow

The voices of tomorrow are loud and clear,
They whisper of hope, a world we hold dear.
Through laughter and dreams, they rise and sing,
Painting bright colors on each new spring.

They speak of change, of kindness and peace,
A promise of love that will never cease.
With courage and strength, they chart their way,
Building a future from lessons today.
Though young, their power can light up the skies,
For in their hearts, the future lies.

Title: Friends are Angels

Our friends are like angels
Who brighten our days,
In all kinds of wonderful
Magical ways.

Their thoughtfulness comes
As a gift from above,
And we feel we're surrounded by
Warm, caring love.

Like upside-down rainbow
Their smiles bring the sun
And they fill ho-hum moments
With laughter and fun.

Friends are like angels
Without any wings,
Blessing our lives
With the most precious things.

Title: The Voices of Tomorrow

The voices of tomorrow sing,
Of happy skies and birds with wings,
They speak of dreams and hopes so bright,
Of shining stars and peaceful nights.

They say let's love, let's play, let's share
Together we'll show that we care.

In every heart, a song will grow,
A tune of kindness, soft and slow.

The voices of tomorrow call,
For kindness, peace for one and all.

So let's listen closely and hear the sounds
Of a world where love and joy are found.

Story

In a small, peaceful village lived a group of children whose laughter could be heard from miles away. Among them was a curious and spirited girl named Tara. Tara believed that every child had a special gift, a unique voice that could change the world.

One sunny afternoon, as Tara and her friends played by the river, she gathered them around. "Have you ever wondered what we can do with our voices?" she asked with a twinkle in her eye.

Tara smiled. "Our voices are like magical keys. They can open hearts, inspire dreams, and bring about change. Let's use our voices to make our village a better place!"

The children were excited and began sharing ideas. Rina suggested planting a garden where everyone could help and learn about nature. Aman wanted to organize a storytelling evening where they could share tales from their grandparents. Maya proposed a clean-up day to keep their village tidy and beautiful.

Inspired by Tara's words, the children set to work. They sang songs as they planted seeds, told stories that filled the air with imagination, and worked together to clean their surroundings. Their voices, filled with joy and determination, echoed through the village.

As days turned into weeks, the village began to transform. The garden bloomed with vibrant flowers and fresh vegetables, the streets sparkled with cleanliness, and the stories brought the community closer together.

One evening, as the sun set behind the hills, the villagers gathered to celebrate. The children stood proudly, knowing they had made a difference. Tara's eyes shone with happiness. "See? We are the voice of tomorrow," she said. "And together, we can create a brighter future."

Title: Social Media

Hello Everyone, I want to tell you about Social media.

It is an online tool where we can connect, post, search, chat, learn, and communicate with other people.

We can grow by searching for things to learn education-related things, and safety-related things in media.

News channels, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube, etc are very active in social media platforms.

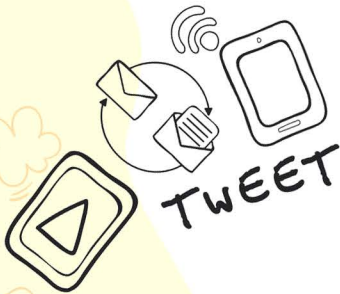

Nowadays no one is living without media, the excessive use of social media is a waste of our health.

It is a good way to show our creativity and communicate with others. Most of people misuse it and they become lazy.

Note: Please use it in a proper way

Thank you
